My dear Miss [redacted]

I have found out among Deseases Mrs' memberships of the Golf Club here that Paul one month's subscription (Rs 20) on his behalf. I suppose the Palace will pay this, or shall I recover it from him?

I told the Maharaja that I had been very busy discussing "matters in dispute" with Mr Mills Lord Willingdon then Private Secretary
I had also seen the Collector here.
He is an old assistant of mine & is going to report at once to favour of the purchase of Kendal Lord & Her Highness. Lord Willingdon especially seems to like matter.

Lord Willingdon takes over view as the subject of calls of Members of Council, so I hope that that matter will be smoothed out too. Lord Willingdon also assured me that he would never visit on "ceremonial" of the kind my own or H.H.'s guest I have also been endeavouring to smooth matters between the Excellencies & Government House, & I hope the breach will be healed.
I feel rather like a steam
- roller ably all this trouble business!
Their Excellencies are very anxious to see Her Highness treated most cordial in their Expectancies of regret for him. Lady Willingdon is very anxious to see [redacted] H.H. Mrs Macnaghten C.D.

I only hope my attempts at diplomacy will bear their fruit while they promise.
We have had rain here every day & heavy rain too the Downs are beginning to look green. I am very comfortable & settling up here and am meeting lots of friends. I hope you are all fit.
With kindest regards
Yours very sincerely
[illegible]
